- 2.6.2 The Captain and/or Vice Captain will lead by example.
- 2.6.3 They will ensure that all rowers understand that the coach is in charge at all times and that the coaches' requests are to be carried out.
- 2.6.4 All crews are given assistance and guidance in all aspects of rowing (especially new rowers) under the authority of coaches.
- 2.6.5 At regattas they will be the first to arrive and the last to leave, thus ensuring that all equipment is ready for a regatta, is accounted for and transported safely to base after a regatta. If they are unable to do so, they will arrange for another responsible person to fulfill this duty.
- 2.6.6 At regattas they will enforce discipline and guide, assist and encourage their teams other than when they are on the water, in which case they will delegate such duties.
- 2.6.7 At regattas they will ensure that all rowers arrive in school uniform and that these uniforms are worn by all rowers for the prize giving at the end of the regatta, should a prize giving take place. They will also ensure that all school rowers attend the prize giving a Gauteng and SA Champs, whether the school wins or not.
- 2.6.8 At regattas, where school rowers are not competing, but wish to come and support their school, these supports will wear the school uniform.
- 2.6.9 At regattas, they must assist the coaches with regard to regatta entries, boat allocations, racing times and the communication of this information to their fellow rowers.
- 2.6.10 Crews for boat loading for regattas away from our boat house or for training camps etc. will be arrange and contacted by the Captain or Vice Captain. They will check that all the boats are securely strapped down on trailers for transport. They will also check that each boat has its fill complement of blades, foot boards, riggers and slides etc. and that every nut and bolt on the boats is tight. They shall also ensure that the club has a full set of lane numbers and that every boat has been washed before transporting them. They shall report any deficiencies or problems with the boats or equipment to the school boat maintenance official and/or coaches as soon as possible during or after the regatta, or as is necessary during training sessions.

- 2.6.11 At the earliest opportunity each season, they shall hold a session or sessions to instruct (all rowers) in the correct method of loading boats onto the trailers and how to look after and maintain the boats.
- 2.6.12 Captains and Vice Captains shall endeavour, within reason, to be present at all times at training sessions, to visibly show their support and encouragement for the rowers. They may exercise their authority over the rowers, assist the coaches to launch boats in the shortest possible time and ensure that all training boats, motors, petrol tanks and equipment for rowing boats are returned to the boat shed in good order and in the correct quantities.
- 2.6.13 They must be able to form a close working relationship with the Head of Coach and his/her assistant coaches.
- 2.6.14 They must liaise with the relevant age group co-ordinator regarding the organisation of lifting of rowers in each group for training sessions, camps and regattas.
- 2.6.15 On the Monday morning after a regatta they must inform the rowing mistress/master of regatta results to enable the mistress/master to post such results on the notice board.
- 2.6.16 The Captain will be in charge of all rowers overall and the Captain's duty specifically will be to oversee all the senior rowers.
- 2.6.17 The Vice Captain will oversee all the junior rowers and must make sure that they receive the correct information concerning training sessions and regattas. The Vice Captain must especially take charge of the junior school rowers.

2.7 Code of Conduct: Rowing Schools

- 2.7.1 Sport at school is seen to be an important aspect of the development of well-rounded young scholars and the rowing club aims to provide this for its members.
- 2.7.1.1 Rowing is a school sport and as such, the school rules apply whenever the rowing club is represented.
- 2.7.1.2 Academic obligations must be fulfilled before a scholar may be allowed to participate in sporting events, This includes being well behaved in class, having all homework and assignments done in good time and having acceptable academic results.
- 2.7.1.3 No scholar may practice or row if they have not attended school that day. If a rower cannot attend practice, regatta or event they must excuse themselves.
- 2.7.1.4 Scholar's appearance must conform to school rules before they may be allowed to practice or row.
- 2.7.1.5 The correct kit must be worn when practicing, racing or at regattas.
- 2.7.1.6 The decisions of regatta officials are only to be queried by the coaches, Head of Rowing or Captains of the Club. No parents are to question the decisions of race umpires and regatta officials. Rowers may raise objections after or during a race according to the regulations set by RowSA, GRA (Gauteng Rowing Association) and SASRU (South African Schools Rowing Union). Rowers, parents, teachers and coaches are to treat regatta officials and race umpires with the utmost respect.

3.5 Appeals of Decisions

- 3.5.1 Any person, group or organisation subject to consideration under the terms of this policy, having participated in a Disciplinary Committee where a decision has been made relating to an offence, may appeal a decision of a Disciplinary Committee.
- 3.5.2 A "Notice of intention to Appeal" must be lodged in writing to the chair by the appeal body within 48 hours after a Disciplinary Committee decision is made.
- 3.5.3 The chair of the appeal body shall:
 - 3.5.3.1 form an appeal committee within seven (7) working days of the notice to appeal being lodged (that has no member involved in the original hearing may be part of the appeal committee);
 - 3.5.3.2 seek and receive the grounds for the appeal to supply to the appeals committee;
 - 3.5.3.3 co-ordinate the conduct of the appeal and related correspondence.
- 3.5.4 Any appeal must be solely and exclusively resolved by the appeal body and the decision of the appeal committee is binding on all parties. (Note this provision does not preclude any person, group, or organisation taking action under any State or Provincial legislation.)
- 3.5.5 Upon hearing the appeal the Appeal Committee may do any one, or more of the following;
 - 3.5.5.1 dismiss the appeal;
 - 3.5.5.2 uphold the appeal;
 - 3.5.5.3 impose any of the penalties set out in this policy;

- 3.5.5.4 reduce, increase or otherwise vary the penalty imposed by the original Disciplinary Tribunal/committee.
- 3.5.6 The Appeal Committee has no power to award costs and each party shall bear their own costs in relation to any appeal.
